Rev. W. H. DE PUY, D. D., Assistant Editor.

The Oldest, Most Widely Circulated, and Most Largely Patronized Methodist Weekly Journal in the World.

While it makes no array of lists of contributors, no religious Journal in the country exceeds it in

THE ABILITY OF ITS EDITORIALS, THE ABILITY AND NUMBER OF ITS CORRESPONDENTS, THE VARIETY AND FRESHNESS OF ITS NEWS, OR THE NUMBER OR UTILITY OF ITS VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS.

It is sought for by the children as well as by adults, and abounds in information fresh, attractive, and useful to persons in every vocation of life.

Enlargement!

The Publishers announce that at the commencement of the ensuing volume, January 1, 1872, The Christian Advocate will be greatly enlarged. The additional space will be equal to more than sixteen of our present columns, and will make the Advocate considerably larger than any paper, official or non-official, now published in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

This increase of space will enable the editors to extend the present departments of the paper, and to add such new ones as are demanded by the rapid growth and improved condition of the Church. Among the additions will be a Sermon Department, which will contain discourses by some of the ablest and best known ministers of our Church. We are quite sure that this and other new features will be exceedingly grateful to our readers. We promise a volume of more than usual interest, and our purpose and the hope is to secure a much larger circulation of the paper, so that its usefulness may be extended.

TALE FOR THE TIMES.

MY WIFE AND I;

Or, Harry Henderson's History.

—BY—

Harriet Beecher Stowe,

480 pp. 12mo. Ex. Clo., $1.75.

ILLUSTRATED

By H. L. STEPHENS.

This new novel is the success of the day. Its publication had to be delayed to fill booksellers' orders, and it continues to sell rapidly all the time. Everybody is reading it!

From The Worcester [Mass.] Palladium,

"My Wife and I" is one of Mrs Stowe's finest works. There is not a question of the times but what is introduced into these interesting chapters. The book will be in great demand."

From The Boston [Mass.] Journal.

Always bright, piquant and entertaining, with an occational touch of tenderness, strong because subtle; keen in sarcasm, full of womanly logic directed against unwomanly tendencies, Mrs. Stowe has achieved an undoubted success in this, her latest effort. Aside from the interest of the plot, the book has the additional charm of a bright and brilliant essay; its sketches of character are graphic and life-like, and its portrayal of society as it is to-day is most vivid and truthful.

MY WIFE AND I;

Or, Harry Henderson's History.

—BY—

Harriet Beecher Stowe,

480 pp. 12mo. Ex. Clo., $1.75.

ILLUSTRATED

By H. L. STEPHENS.

This new novel is the success of the day. Its publication had to be delayed to fill booksellers' orders, and it continues to sell rapidly all the time. Everybody is reading it!

From The Worcester [Mass.] Palladium,

"My Wife and I" is one of Mrs Stowe's finest works. There is not a question of the times but what is introduced into these interesting chapters. The book will be in great demand."

From The Boston [Mass.] Journal.

Always bright, piquant and entertaining, with an occational touch of tenderness, strong because subtle; keen in sarcasm, full of womanly logic directed against unwomanly tendencies, Mrs. Stowe has achieved an undoubted success in this, her latest effort. Aside from the interest of the plot, the book has the additional charm of a bright and brilliant essay; its sketches of character are graphic and life-like, and its portrayal of society as it is to-day is most vivid and truthful.

"IT SAVED MY LIFE."

Words of a Reliable Druggist.

MARINE CITY, MICH., July 28th, 1870.

J. N. HARRIS & CO. DEAR SIRS:—The Allen's Lung Balsam has arrived. I would not like to be without it, for it has saved my life. I took a bad cold and a cough, and finally consumption was seated upon me. I was in a very bad state. I tried everything that was recommended, and spent a great deal of money, and got no help. I had Allen's Lung Balsam for sale, but I knew nothing of its merits. I did not like to take it without knowing more about it. I had not sold a bottle. When your agent called upon me, I told him I could not sell a medicine I knew nothing about. He urged me to try it myself. I did so, and, to my grateful surprise, the first bottle stopped my cough, and before the third bottle was taken, my lungs were healed and well, and I can now speak knowingly to my friends and customers of the good qualities of Allen's Lung Balsam. I remain yours, respectfully,

L. C. COTTRELL.

☞ It is harmless to the most delicate child.
☞ It contains no opium in any form.

CAUTION.

Call for "Allen's Lung Balsam," and shun the use of any other Balsam: unprincipled men may deceive you with worthless preparations.

CUSHMAN & BROOKS,
37 AND 39 TEMPLE PLACE,

Not only have Messrs. Cushman & Brooks made extra preparations for the holiday trade, but they hold out extra inducements to their purchasers, in the quality, desirability, and cheapness of the goods they have on sale. Their stock of goods may almost be viewed in the light of a special one, and in it are to be found many articles not obtainable elsewhere. Among the many important departments in the establishment is that devoted to Ladies' Underwear, the goods being of their own manufacture, and in it we find train under-skirts, fifty-six to seventy-two inches in length; trained walking-skirts, night-robes, chemises, corsets, and complete bridal outfits, made from the finest cloths, linens, cambrics, etc.; infants' and children's underwear; infants' hats, bonnets, and in fact every requisite of dress for those excessively troublesome comforts; and, furthermore, in this department can be found French corsets, panniers, pads (see how we blush when we make mention of them), hoop-skirts, stockings, supporters, garters, sleeve-protectors—we involuntarily exclaimed with Petruchio, when we saw one of them, "What's this? a sleeve? 'tis like a demi-cannon"—and also pillow and sheet-shams. In this department, also, will be found all the very best makes of merino underwear for ladies, gentlemen, and children; silk vests and drawers; scarlet cashmere undervests and drawers; real Scotch lamb's wool undervests and drawers, and all the extra large sizes, for extra large-sized gentlemen,—not for those, who, like Sir John Falstaff, in his youth, can creep through an alderman's thumb-ring, but for men like Falstaff in his riper years, "a good, portly man i' faith, and a corpulent." This is a very important branch of the business of this house, and the ruling prices for the goods are always of the lowest. Let us look at the Lace Goods and Embroideries. In real laces here are to be found Valenciennes in all widths and styles; black thread, guipure, black Malta, Duchess, Mechlin, etc.; real Swiss needlework sets of collars and cuffs for ladies, misses, and children; embroidered sets for from fifty cents, upwards; and some magnificent real Valenciennes sets, of sleeves and collars in boxes with glass covers, and which will make elegant and timely gifts. In looking at the assortment of handkerchiefs we become absolutely bewildered, for we could scarcely imagine that there were so many different styles of these very necessary articles; for we find here, in addition to innumerable other varieties, handkerchiefs of point applique lace, handkerchiefs embroidered, handkerchiefs with initials for ladies and gentlemen, for boys and girls, handkerchiefs that are hem-stitched for gentlemen, handkerchiefs with colored borders, handkerchiefs of silk, and handkerchiefs of every other fabric; some of the lace handkerchiefs for ladies claim our special wonder, for they are as delicate as gossamer, and appear to be spun out of the finest spider's web. Othello boasts of the handkerchief spotted with strawberries, his first gift to the gentle Desdemona, that there was—

"Magic in the web of it:
A sibyl, that had number'd in the world
The sum to make two hundred compasses,
In her prophetic fury sew'd the work," but we doubt very much if that famed kerchief was of any comparison to those of lace to be found here which for delicacy of workmanship and elegance of design will certainly be admired and coveted by any lady who examines them. Here, too, in this department will be found ladies', gentlemen's, and children's neckties, scarfs, etc., in magnificent display, and including many new designs, and which were added to the stock with reference to their especial fitness for holiday gifts—in price these articles range from 25 cents to $1.50 each. In the Hat and Bonnet Department there is a stock that is well worthy of attention, for here we find all the very latest and choicest styles of hats and bonnets for ladies, misses, and children, of French and American make. Hats in velvet, plush, and felt; the latest novelties in boys and children's hats, at all prices; French hat and bonnet frames; Paris flowers, aigrettes, pompons, hair ornaments, jets, garniture for bridal, ball, and party dresses, of elaborate as well as of quiet and classic designs; elegant long wreaths, orange blossoms, black flowers, black and white flowers, etc. See sash ribbons, sashes, trimming ribbons, white ribbons, Roman ribbons, two-toned ribbons, shaded ribbons, and so on. They are of all prices, and of course will suit the means of all classes of purchasers.

In their stock of Gloves the firm take a great pride and in the article of kid gloves it is not improbable that no other store in the city has so fine an assortment in white and black, and in evening and opera colors; indeed, the reputation of this house for nice kid gloves is proverbial, and the prices run all the way from 60 cents to $2.75 the pair. They have, also, all the choice styles of cloth and woolen gloves for ladies', misses', boys', and children's wear, at prices from 25 cents to $1.50 the pair.—Hosiery receives the strict attention of the firm, for it is one of the most important branches of their business. The stock includes long stockings in fine silk, cashmere, merino, Balbriggan, black cashmere, French, Angola fleece lined, and Cartwright & Warner's celebrated fancy long hose for misses, boys, and children; white merino stockings for infants, and also all the extra large sizes for men and women, with extra heavy cotton hose of French and English make. All these goods are of superior quality and the prices are very low.—Here we come to Trimmings, and of these, suited to the fashions, we can take our choice of gimps, braids, buttons, and all the paraphernalia for dresses, cloaks, hats, and bonnets, of the most select and latest styles. Here, also, we come upon French and German goods, such as slipper pattern and ottomans in the finest worsted work, and all of entirely new designs; and here, too, are toilet articles, such as French soaps, tooth and nail brushes, fancy goods, porte-monnaies, wallets, pocket-books, scissors, and any amount of new and useful articles, any one of which would make a not inappropriate Christmas or New Year's present.—We find here a gorgeous lot of Velvets, of the genuine Lyons manufacture, for cloakings, hats, and bonnets, in all the choice and desirable shades, such as plum color, garnet, light and sky blue, light and dark brown, light and dark green, lavender, royal purple, pink, drab, slate, etc., and we do not think we overstep the mark when we say that this is the finest assortment in the city.—Here, in our wandering through the store, we fall upon some useful and very necessary articles for all those who desire to keep comfortable at this season, such as knit worsted jackets, gaiters, leggins, mittens, wristers, clouds, scarfs, and mufflers. We never saw such a magnificent lot of clouds, and the prices, we were about to say, are ridiculously low, but then after all, 'tis the aim of every purchaser to procure their goods at the lowest rates, in short to get them as bargains. The assortment of felt skirts and Russian gored underskirts, and kindred articles cannot be excelled, either for style, price, or quality.—In Housekeeping and Linen Goods there are full and complete lines, and rich indeed is the stock in elegant Marseilles quilts, English toilet quilts, table napkins and damasks, Turkey red damasks and damask towels. At the present time this line of goods is being cleared out at extremely low prices, to make room for fresh importations.—And here we have a lot of nick-nacks, such as ladies' nets, boys' belts, shawl and bundle-straps, and so on, all of the newest patterns. But why go further into the minutia of this large and varied stock of goods? Let us close by assuring our readers and those most interested, that by far the largest part of the goods enumerated are made expressly for this house in France, Germany, Great Britain, and Switzerland, and the great amount of business transacted here invariably insures to purchasers the latest, the freshest, and the choicest goods, at the lowest possible prices.—Boston Evening Traveller.

JESUS CHRIST: His Life and Work.
BY E. DE PRESSENSE, D. D.
Translated by ANNIE HARWOOD.
12mo., pp. 320. Price $1.50.
In the Preface to this work the author says: "This popular edition of the Life of Christ differs from the work that I published a year ago (and which in eight months reached its third edition) by the absence of all that was purely scientific. It appeared to me desirable in this edition, which addresses itself to readers of the most various classes, to avoid, as far as possible, all debatable and controversial points. I hope that in this new form this book, in which I have embodied the most cherished convictions, will meet with a wide circulation.

SAVING FAITH. Its Rationale. With a Demonstration of its Presence in the Organic Condition of Methodist Church Membership. A Treatise in Two Parts. By ISRAEL CHAMBERLAYNE, D. D. 12mo., pp. 262. Price, $1.25.
Of this able and timely work Bishop Morris says:—
This is an able treatise by a master logician; one of exceeding interest to all evangelical Christians.

PRESSENSE'S SECOND VOLUME!
The Martyrs and Apologists.
PRICE $1.75.
This second volume of Pressense's great work—THE EARLY HEROES OF CHRISTIANITY—is now ready. It will perhaps be considered the most interesting of the entire series.

The Problem of Evil.
By M. ERNEST NAVILLE.
Translated from the French by Prof. J. P. LACROIX, M. A., of Ohio Wesleyan University. 12mo. Price, $1.50. The only authorized translation.
The work, though on a recondite subject, was delivered in a series of lectures to popular audiences, is marked by the eminently French transparency of style, will be clear and attractive to the most ordinary reader, and will do brave battle against the Pantheism and Rationalism of our age and country.
